Reverend Anthony Salzman

Dear Friends,

We are looking forward being with you at the Iconography Workshop at the Diakonia Center in Salem, Sc. It is a beautiful time of year and an inspiring setting, perfect for this profound artistic expression. I hope you all have had a chance to visit the Diakonia Center Website (www.diakoniacenter.org) and see the photos of the grounds and the accommodations. I wanted to give you some final information to help you prepare for the class and your stay.

Father hopes that you can arrive on the evening before the workshop is scheduled to begin so to get an early start on the first day. It is best to arrive before dark but if you let us know your estimated time of arrival there can be someone with a "beacon" to welcome you in before 10:00 pm. The kitchen phone number is 1-864-944-6788 and Father's cell phone is 706-340-5728. There will not be a meal on Tuesday night but there is always a beverage and snack station open. Leave your luggage in your car and come down to the dining hall, and someone will help you get settled. The women will be in one lodge together and may choose either a single or double room.

You will be given a prepared board (usually 8' x 10') and a line drawing of the image that you will be writing. If you would like to prepare the line drawing yourself beforehand, please contact us and we'll send it to you.

Please note that linens and towels will be available for a $5 fee payable upon arrival. Or you are welcome to bring your own bedding (linens, blankets, sleeping bag) and towels. There will be some worship services the days you are there, and you are welcome to wear your casual "campy" clothes as this is an informal gathering.

Please be sure to have completed your registration form, Metropolis waiver form and pay any outstanding balance before arrival.

Other things to bring:

- Old brush for mixing paint
- Egg yolk dispenser bottle, if you have one
- Flashlight
- Mosquito Repellant
- Comfortable shoes & clothing
- Jacket and sweater
- Rain gear
- Bathing Suit, Fishing rod
- Specialty foods, snacks, wine or soft drinks for the lodge refrigerator if you so choose

Feel free to contact me with any other questions you may. Father Anthony very much looks forward to being with you for this very special workshop.

In Christ,

Christine Salzman
